

The Lighthouse Club and 39 Essex Chambers present

TRACING A CONSTRUCTION CASE

We invite you to join us for this unique seminar, which will trace a construction case (based on the facts of an actual but unidentified dispute in Asia), from commencement with the QS / Claims Manager's involvement, moving through all legal processes to judgement via mediation and arbitration.

This evening will appeal to all those involved in construction claims, including front and back end lawyers, in-house counsel, lawyers specialising in construction, claims consultants, quantity surveyors and contract administrators.

Our formidable line-up comprises:

- Simon Bellas, Partner, Jones Day as the narrator
- Stephen Bolt, QS, Director – Aquentia and Vice President LHC, Sydney as the QS claims manager
- Alex Baykitch AM, Partner, King & Wood Mallesons, Sydney and President of ACICA as the solicitor
- Dennis Wilson, Independent Barrister and Mediator, Sydney as the mediator
- Ben Olbourne, Barrister, 39 Essex Chambers, Singapore as the barrister
- David Bateson, former Head of Construction, King & Wood Mallesons, Hong Kong and now Arbitrator, 39 Essex Chambers, Singapore as the arbitrator
- Justice Margaret Beazley, President of the Court of Appeal, NSW as the judge
- Chief Justice Tom Bathurst, Chief Justice of NSW as moderator

Date: 3 April 2017

Time: 5:30pm, followed by a drinks reception at 6:45pm

Location: Sydney Supreme Courthouse (Banco Court) – Law Courts Building, Queens Square, Sydney

All proceeds will go to support the Lighthouse Club.

As this is a charity event, we have kept the registration fee to a very reasonable $25.

Don't miss out, purchase tickets at www.lighthouseclubaus.org

This event is CPD-certified and you will be able to earn up to 1 CPD point by attending.

We look forward to seeing you at what should be a great evening!
